Fractured
I'm crying out in need
Wounded
These scars are still bleeding
But healing
As He paints His stripes on me
Savior
Broken so I could be free

Like cracked ceramics repaired with gold
We're dark but lovely when God makes us whole
Give up our striving and pain so He can end it
To Jesus we surrender to be mended

Shattered
And scattered in the wind
But gathered
To be made whole again
Redeemer
His body and blood was shed
To restore us
Back to communion

A piece of you, A piece of me
A piece of Christ
Broken that we could be mended
Peace for you and peace for me
The peace of Christ
Given so we could be mended
To Jesus we surrender to be mended
